The Refractories Institute Bylaws

Membership and Qualifications

Section 3.2 - Non-Voting Membership: The following membership classes shall have no vote, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, nor be eligible to hold office in The Institute:

(B) Affiliate Membership: Any proprietorship, partnership, corporation or other business entity engaged in the manufacture of refractory products outside of North America, which does not want to be “an Active (voting) member”, shall be eligible for an Affiliate Membership in the Institute, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. The Official Representative of an Affiliate Member does not vote, except as a member of the Affiliates Committee.

Section 9.4 - Affiliates Committee: This Committee shall be made up of Official Representatives of the Affiliate Members or their designees who elect to serve on it. Each Official Representative shall have one (1) vote.

Section 9.9 - Qualifications of Committee Persons: Any employee of any member company may hold a membership on any standing or special committee, subject to the following exclusions or restrictions. Only Official Representatives of Active member companies may serve on the Nominating Committee or Executive Committee. Membership on the Associates Committee is limited to employees of Associate member companies only. Membership on the Contractors/installers Committee is limited to employees of Contractor/Installer member companies only. Membership on the Affiliates Committee is limited to employees of Affiliate member companies only.

Section 9.10 - Voting: Each member company shall have one (1) vote at any committee meeting. Should more than one employee representative attend a committee meeting, the Official Representative shall designate the person who shall be entitled to vote.
